

Kevin B.

Kevin is a handsome, energetic and fun loving 11 year old boy. He has a big bright smile that lights up a room. Kevin loves to engage in conversation with others, especially if the topic of sharks should come up. He enjoys reading and books about sharks are a favorite of his. Another favorite activity is listening to music.

Kevin has taken a special interest in cars. He enjoys learning about the older classic cars and can identify the year and the model the car is in an instant. Motorcycles and dirt bikes are also favorite topics in the books and magazines he reads.

An adoptive family for Kevin will need to provide a structured, consistent and nurturing environment for him. A family who can participate in and support the therapeutic services he needs will be the best match for this energetic young man.
